Call for Papers

The Federal Government Distance Learning Association is accepting proposals supporting the Learning Technologies in the Federal Government track. Abstracts for presentations from knowledgeable professionals in government, military, and academia are solicited to provide presentations, which would be part of a comprehensive conference program on instructional design issues and the latest learning technologies as they are being applied to training, education, and job performance improvement within the Federal Government.

Abstracts: Please submit abstract(s) of your proposed presentation(s) (up to 100 words per topic suggested). Abstracts will be considered for an individual presentation, or as a participant in a panel discussion.

Submit your abstract send to Alex Autry (Alex.Autry@afit.edu) and Jolly Holden (jollyholden@bellsouth.net)

Author's Information: Be sure to include the author's name, title, organization, address, phone number, and email address. In addition, relevant biographical information about the author(s) should be included with the abstract submission so it can be posted on the FGDLA® (www.FGDLA.us) & SALT® (www.SALT.org) Web sites.

Key Dates: Deadline to Submit Abstracts: March 15, 2012
Notification of Acceptance: April 6, 2012

Presentation Information: Session length is 45 minutes. Each presentation room will be equipped with a projector, screen, laptop connection (presenter will need to bring own laptop), and high-speed Internet connection.

Contacts: If you have questions please call Alex Autry, Conference Chair at 937-904-5479 or Jolly Holden, Co-Chair, 770-419-2064
